

~~SECRET~~

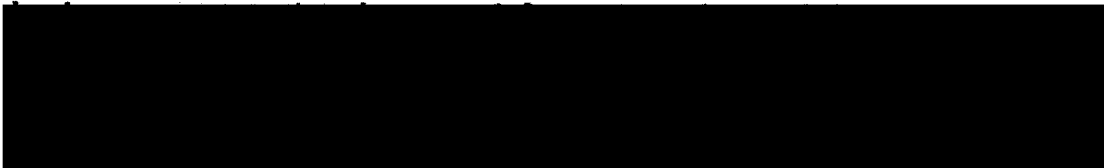

INFORMATION

EXTRACT FROM OPC REGULATION NO. 70-2
dated 1 October 1951

Functions of the Commercial Division

1. Purpose

To advise and assist ADPC and the line divisions in the

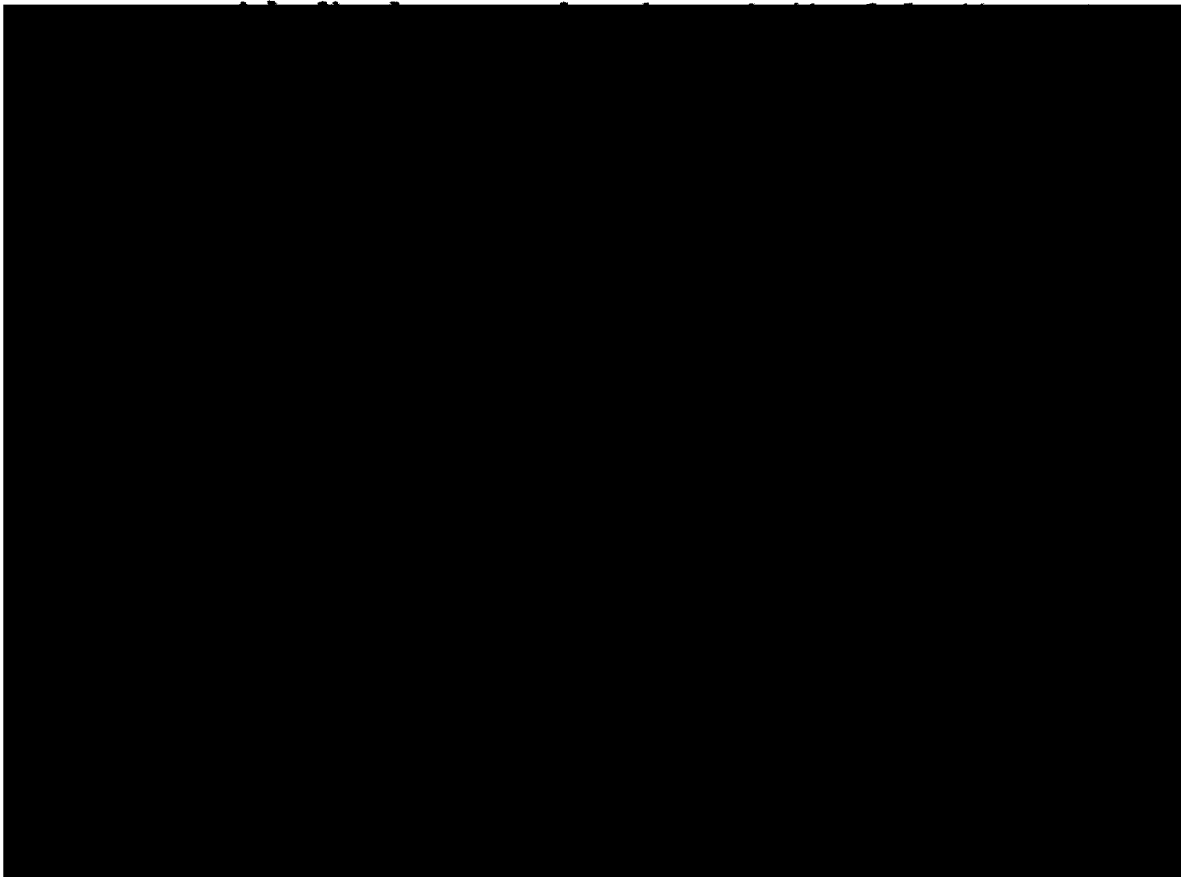

2. Major Functions

In conformity with approved plans, programs, and policies:

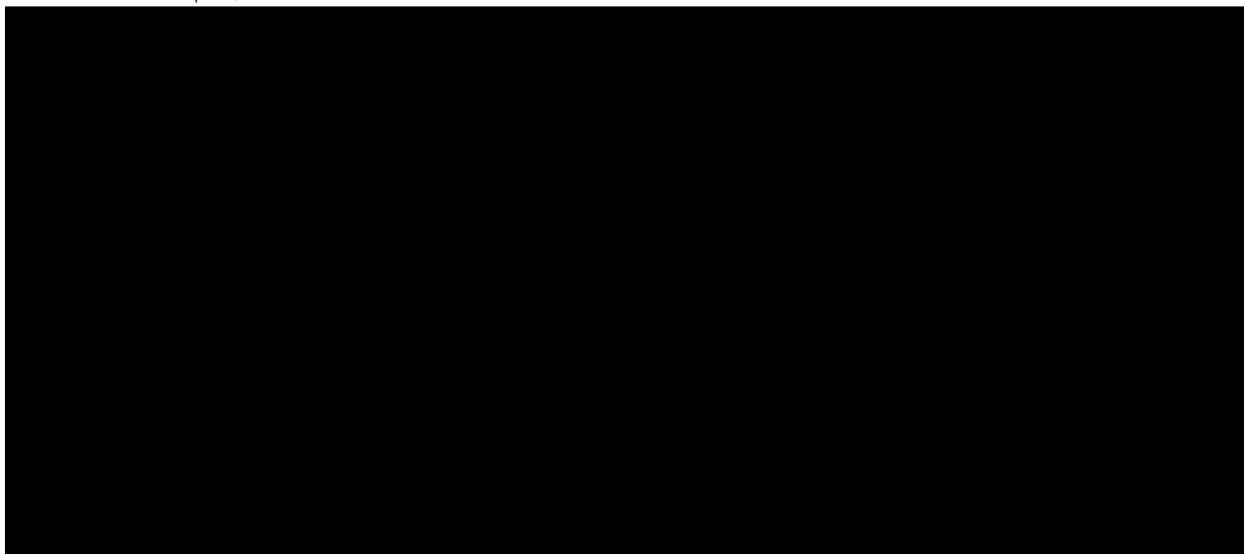

a. Reviews with the operating divisions all plans for projects of the above-named types prior to their presentation to ADPC or higher authority.

25X1C4c

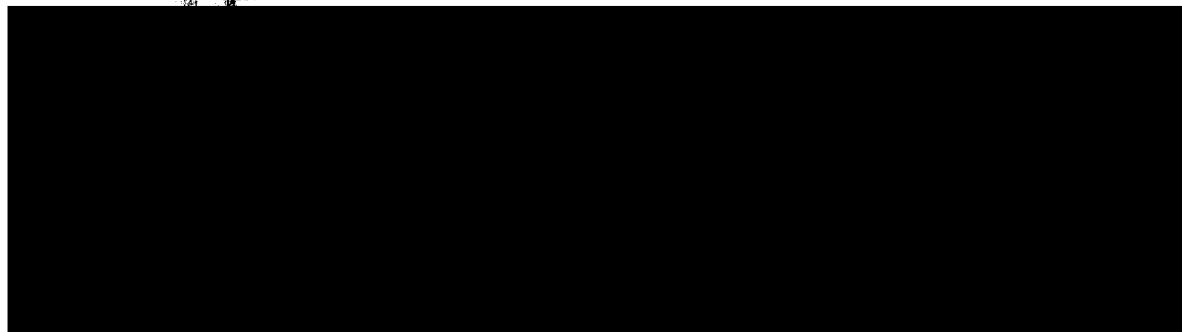

b. Advises and assists the operating divisions in planning the

~~SECRET~~

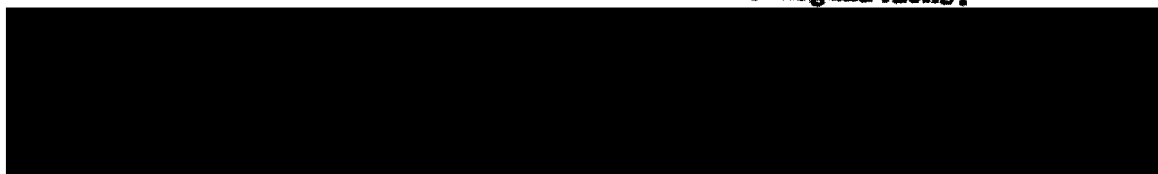

e. Prepares special and periodic reports to the CM Executive Committee to keep the Committee members properly informed.

g. Makes or causes to be made available to General Counsel/CIA copies of such documents of legal importance as he may request.

h. As provided in the Confidential Funds Regulations:

(2) In coordination with the Comptroller and/or Auditor/CIA, initiates current administrative audits or post audits of activities under its supervision.

(3) From the facilities made available to it by the Comptroller/CIA, selects with the concurrence of the Comptroller and Auditor/CIA the audit facility to be used.

(4) Assists the Auditor/CIA in arranging for any independent post-audit he may require.

3. Organization

The Commercial Division consists of the Chief, Deputy Chief, a group of case officers, a group of consultants, and a group of clerical personnel.